Jacqueline Yarmo, Elder Law Attorney

Join us for the first workshop in our free two-part legal planning series with elder law attorney Jacqueline Yarmo and learn how proactive planning can help you protect your health, finances, home, and loved ones for the future.

Many families believe estate planning is only for the wealthy or wait until an emergency happens to put important legal documents in place but planning ahead can provide peace of mind, reduce stress, and help ensure your wishes are honored.

- Key legal documents to have in place
- Probate v. Non-probate assets
- How to plan proactively for the future
